The Alumni Association and its chapters have made significant contributions across various areas:

Financial and In-Kind Support: The Alumni Association has provided substantial financial support through donations and fundraising initiatives, as well as in-kind contributions such as equipment, technology, and resources for campus improvements.

Donation of Books/Journals/Volumes: Alumni have generously donated books, journals, and other educational materials to enrich the institution's library and academic resources, enhancing research and learning opportunities for students and faculty.

Students Placement: The Alumni Association has facilitated career development opportunities for students by connecting them with alumni networks, organizing job fairs, and offering mentorship programs to support their transition into the workforce.

Student Exchanges: Alumni involvement has facilitated student exchange programs, enabling students to gain international exposure, broaden their perspectives, and develop valuable cross-cultural skills through immersive learning experiences abroad.

Institutional Endowments: The Alumni Association has contributed to the institution's endowment fund, providing long-term financial support for scholarships, research grants, faculty development, and other institutional priorities, ensuring the sustainability and growth of the institution for future generations.
