Description	On April 14, 2020, the NSS club at SSVP Homeopathic College and Research Institute conducted a significant extension activity through a Tree Plantation Program. Recognizing the critical role of trees in environmental conservation, NSS volunteers actively participated in planting saplings within the college premises. The program aimed to enhance green cover, promote ecological sustainability, and instill a sense of environmental responsibility among students and faculty. By fostering a connection between the college community and nature, the Tree Plantation Program exemplified the NSS club's dedication to community service and environmental awareness. This initiative contributed to the creation of a greener and more sustainable campus, aligning with the broader goals of promoting environmental consciousness within SSVP Homeopathic College and Research Institute.

Description	On September 25, 2020, the NSS club at SSVP Homeopathic College and Research Institute organized a Swachata Abhiyan (Cleanliness Drive) as a significant extension activity. Recognizing the importance of cleanliness and hygiene, NSS volunteers actively engaged in cleaning and beautifying the college campus. The Swachata Abhiyan aimed not only to maintain a clean and aesthetically pleasing environment but also to instill a sense of responsibility and pride in the college community towards their surroundings. Through collaborative efforts, the NSS club demonstrated its commitment to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and the broader goal of fostering a cleaner and healthier living and learning space within SSVP Homeopathic College and Research Institute. This initiative emphasized the impact of collective action in promoting cleanliness and encouraged a culture of sustainable practices among students and faculty.
