Description

On September 28, 2018, the NSS club at SSV Homeopathic College and Research Institute organized a heartwarming extension activity on the occasion of Ganesh Chaturthi—a visit to an orphanage. Recognizing the significance of community outreach during festive times, NSS volunteers shared the joy of the festival with the less fortunate. The visit involved cultural performances, interactive sessions, and the distribution of sweets and gifts to the children, creating a festive and joyous atmosphere. This extension activity not only celebrated the spirit of Ganesh Chaturthi but also exemplified the NSS club's commitment to social responsibility and compassion. The visit to the orphanage fostered a sense of connection and empathy within the college community, emphasizing the importance of spreading happiness and kindness during auspicious occasions.
